

NOSY MOTHER-IN-LAW

ORIGINAL A-FLAT
SUNG RATHER FREELY

LORD KITCHENER

INTRO INSTR.: F Bb C(SUS4) C7 F

5 F Bb C(SUS4) C7 To CODA F

9 VERSE F Bb C7 F

It's worse than be - fore I am ti-red with this no - sy moth ther in law

13 F Bb C7 F

It's worse than be - fore I do not like her no - sy moth er in law. They be - come a nui - sance to mar - ried life they want to tell you how to live with your wife. Well it is

17 D7 Gm C7 F

21 F Bb C(SUS4) C7 F D.C. AL CODA ⊕ F F6

mise - ry, sor - rows and war to live with a no - sy moth - er in law

Verse 2

They come to your place
They want to be a ruler i every case.
They lie down in bed
And is your wife got to do all the work instead.
At ten o'clock they ain't get up yet
And they order in their coffee and cigaret.
So it is misery, sorrows and war
To live with a nosy mother-in-law.

Verse 3

Your wife may be nice
But the mother will surely give her bad advice:
'Your husband no good
And he doesn't treat you as he really should'.
So she listens to what the mother saying
Then comes the fighting and quarelling.
Boy, it is misery, sorrows and war
To live with a nosy mother-in-law.

Verse 4

As you turn your back
The mother-in-law start to make her attack:
'Don't you see the man is gone off to Rome,
Why don't you leave him and come back home?'
But that is the ending of every thing
The wife present you back with the ring.
So it is misery, sorrows and war
To live with a nosy mother-in-law.